

Anne Crelie

LOOKING FOR A SPONSORSHIP

ABOUT ME

Hi, I hope you are doing very well.

My name is Anne, I come from a small village close to the French Alps. I started travelling after university to improve my english but found out I really liked discover different cultures and live the local life around the world. I am now in Japan but absolutely fell in love with it so would like to stay here. I had worked in a lot of places and did many different jobs. I also like to sew, do yoga and various sports but my favourite thing is to cook especially bake. I am a quick learner, a good team worker and a smiling person.

I am looking for a job where I can learn and improve my skills in anyways.
